

Cagliari Tourist Route Planner

Explore the Best of Cagliari

Day 10/01/2025

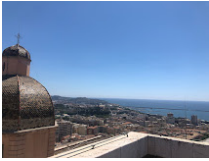

Point of Interest (POI)	Description	Image	Visit Time	Google Maps Link
Necropoli di Bonaria	Cagliari, Necropolis of Bonaria The necropolis occupies the western slopes of the Bonaria hill. Bonaria's funerary vocation dates back to the 4th century BC, when, in the middle of the Punic Age, the hill was used as a burial place.		08:30-09:00	View on Google Maps
Porta dei Leoni (Micene)	The Lions' Gate was the main entrance to the city, so called because of the decorations on the discharge triangle with two lions symmetrically arranged on either side of a column. It dates back to around 1300 BC, and is part of the Cyclopean wall fortification system.		09:15-10:30	View on Google Maps
Porta S'Avanzada	Porta S'Avanzada is one of the medieval gates that was part of the ancient walls of the city of Cagliari, located in the area of the historic district of Castello. Its construction dates back to the Pisan period, when Cagliari was a fortified city.		10:45-11:15	View on Google Maps

Cittadella dei Musei	The greatest art, history and culture complex in the capital and in the whole of Sardinia, allowing you to move between Eastern art, archaeological artefacts and paintings.		15:00-15:30	View on Google Maps
Museo Diocesano del Duomo	The museum structure wants to represent a place of encounter and cultural growth, where sacred art testifies to the religious sentiment of the Christian community and documents the historical journey of the diocesan territory, within and beyond the borders of the city, even in relation to minor realities.		15:45-17:00	View on Google Maps
Piazza Arsenale	The basics. Housed inside the former Royal Arsenal (Regio Arsenale), now known as the Citadel of Museums, the National Museum of Archaeology offers a fascinating overview of Sardinia's ancient history and is a visit here is a must for archaeology enthusiasts.		17:15-17:45	No Google Maps Link Available

Day 11/01/2025

Point of Interest (POI)	Description	Image	Visit Time	Google Maps Link
-------------------------	-------------	-------	------------	------------------

Chiesa di Sant'Antonio Abate	The church of Sant'Antonio Abate is a monumental church in Cagliari. It overlooks via Giuseppe Manno, in the historic Marina district.		08:30-09:00	View on Google Maps
Piazzetta Savoia	Piazzetta Savoia is named after the House of Savoy, the royal family of Italy until the monarchy was abolished in 1946. The square is surrounded by elegant buildings, cafes, and shops, making it a popular spot for locals and tourists alike to stroll, relax, and enjoy the ambiance of the city.		09:15-10:30	View on Google Maps
Parco delle Rimembranze	The park is dedicated to the fallen of the First World War and was created in the wake of the avenues of Remembrance that arose in Italy starting from 1923. It was built in 1935 based on a design by the assistant architect Ubaldo Badas. The monument is of sober taste and consists of two bundles of trachyte and Serrenti stone on which the dates of the most important battles of the great war are shown. Between the two beams is the exedra on whose structure the names of the fallen are written.		10:45-11:15	View on Google Maps

Torre Campanaria della Cattedrale	agliari's graceful 13th-century cathedral stands proudly on Piazza Palazzo. Except for the square-based bell tower, little remains of the original Gothic structure: the clean Pisan-Romanesque facade is a 20th-century imitation, added between 1933 and 1938.		15:00-15:30	View on Google Maps
Galleria Comunale d'Arte	Housed in a neoclassical villa in the Giardini Pubblici (Public Gardens) north of the Castello, this terrific gallery focuses on modern and contemporary art. Works by many of Sardinia's top artists are on show, alongside paintings and sculptures from the Collezione Ingrao		15:45-17:00	View on Google Maps
Passeggiata del Lungomare di Sant'Elia	A long pedestrian and cycle path close to the sea that from the Nervi park, after crossing a very small boat port and skirting the tiny beach of Canaletto, you arrive at the Lazzaretto square.		17:15-17:45	No Google Maps Link Available